Here is the Church!

A Little Note for Parents

Through Baptism we become members of the Church, the Family of God.
We are called and are indeed the Children of God,
able to call God our Father.
Holy Baptism is a new birth, through water and the Holy Spirit.

This little booklet is designed to accompany young children during a celebration of Holy Baptism, when a baby is being baptised.

Your child is free to colour this book.

They may, of course, take this booklet home!

More information about Holy Baptism and other aspects of the Christian Life is available in church or on our website.

Today is a happy day.

Today is a special day.

Today we welcome a new member of God's family, the Church.

Can you draw a picture of the baby who is baptised today?

Here is the church,
full of smiling people.

Can you see the people,
full of life and light?

Here is the church,
God wants us to be happy.

Can you see God's family?
Yes, it's you and me!

Here are the people,
waiting for a birthday.

Can you see a baby?
What a lovely sight.

Here are the people,
calling God their Father.

Can you see the Church,
as they celebrate a birth?

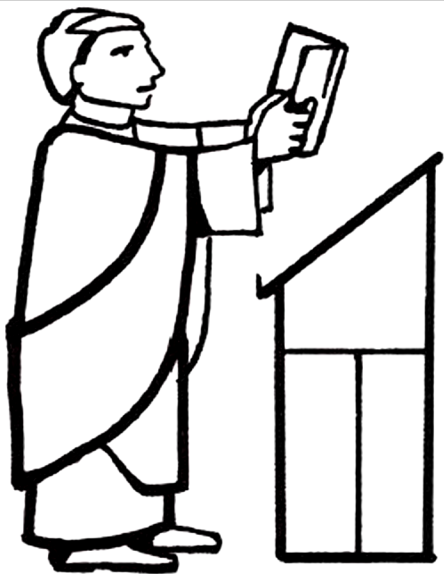

Here is the baby,
everyone is looking.

Can you see the priest?
as happy as can be?

Here is a baby,
loved by God in Heaven.

Can you see the people,
God's family on earth?

Here is the priest,
praying over water.

Can you see the font,
a place for you and me?

Here is a candle,
burning in the darkness.

Can you see a baby,
all clothed in white?

Here is the font,
let us go much closer.

Can you see the water,
shimmering in the light?

Here is the water,
flowing over baby.

Can you see a candle,
flickering so bright?
